DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Office action is in response to applicant's response filed 11/10/2006.
2. Claims 1-8 as amended are still in consideration for this application.
3. Examiner does not withdraw the anticipated rejection to Oda. In particular, the transmit-side gateway performs the receiving and selecting step as argued by applicant (i.e., the notification is being sent to the transmit gateway). Specifically, see bottom of column 7 and top of column 8. As such, the notification is processed by the communication channel monitoring unit 121.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,975,624 B1 to Oda et al. ("Oda").

As to claim 1, see e.g., the second embodiment of Oda with respect to transmit-side gateway shown e.g., in figure 5a. In particular, note that a circuit switched network is the ingress to the transmitting gateway and the egress is a packet switched network (i.e., IP network) that feeds into another gateway (i.e., the receiver gateway) attached to another circuit switched network. As such, an expansion section and compression sections are taught as part of coding units 120. A setting is taught e.g., as communication channel monitoring unit 121. A controller and judging section are further taught as a coding system change order unit 124 and call control unit 11. In particular, Oda teaches monitoring a communication channel on a circuit switched side using communication channel monitoring unit 121 (i.e., the upstream signal of a call-out side gateway in reference to applicant's specification). Based on the type of detected signal from the circuit switched channel side, the system judges whether to apply another coding scheme to the packet switched network side by using the coding system change order unit 124, see e.g., column 8. In particular, note that the reference teaches that if the communication signal already coded by 64 kbps PCM is input, this signal will be based as is (i.e., when the compression forms coincide no processing takes place).

As to claim 7, see similar rejection to claim 1.

As to claim 8, see similar rejection to claim 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2-6 are allowed.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
